

CREDIT SEMINAR SEPTEMBER 13TH IN WOLFEBORO AND OSSIPEE

WOLFEBORO, NH: Today your credit score is more important than ever; whether you are starting a business, applying for financing to purchase a car or home, looking to rent an apartment, applying for a job or obtaining insurance. Your credit worthiness will determine if you qualify and influence the interest rate, insurance premiums, etc. With the increasing cost of everything from gas to food it is more important than ever for businesses, families and individuals to establish effective budgets.

On Saturday, September 13th Consumer Credit Counseling Service of NH-VT (CCCS NH-VT) will provide two FREE workshops called “CREDIT CONSIDERATIONS”. They will provide resources and guidance for building a budget you can live by and within. In addition, there will be tips and techniques for managing debt, using credit responsibly, overcoming debt concerns, ways to pay down debt, making the most of your money and advice on avoiding credit scams. The workshop will also cover credit reports and scores. You will learn how to obtain and read your credit report, address errors and rebuild your credit; in addition you will receive advice on managing and improving your credit score.

Take charge of your credit by attending one of these FREE workshops! There will be a morning workshop at WEDCO located at 7 Center Street, lower level of Citizens Bank in Wolfeboro from 10:00 AM–Noon, sponsored by the Meredith Village Savings Bank. The afternoon session is at the Ossipee Public Library, 74 Main Street in Center Ossipee from 1:00-3:00 PM and is co-sponsored by the Greater Ossipee Chamber of Commerce, Profile Bank and the Eastern Lakes Region Housing Coalition. To RSVP call WEDCO at 569-4216 or email: info@wedco-nh.org
